Literature

The Cat of Bubastes - G.A. Henty

The Art of War - Sun Tzu

Julius Caesar - Williams Shakespeare

A Tale of Two Cities - Charles Dickens

North and South - Elizabeth Gaskell

The Hiding Place - Corrie Ten Boom

Cry, The Beloved Country - Alan Paton

Animal Farm - George Orwell

The Abolition of Man - C.S. Lewis

This list is reduced from what is typically featured. The literature books do not necessarily need to be purchased. You may prefer to rent, borrow or check out from the public library. It is required reading though to be completed in units throughout the year. Please exercise precaution - if you purchase a literature book from another source than Notgrass, please know that it will be different than the version used in class. The Notgrass versions are edited to weed out inappropriate words (ie. racial slurs/foul language). We cannot guarantee that a different copy is up to such standards. Consequently, it will be harder to determine the correct pages to follow along with the assignments and it is likely necessary for you to read with your student(s) to address/handle such potential terms.
